Carolyn, sweet angel all of our family loved you dearly and we'll miss you dearly. You have a beautiful soul and I know you are in a better place in the loving arms of all the loved ones that have preceded you to heaven. I'm a selfish person and wish you would have stayed a little longer here with all of us who love you and care for you, but I know you are jumping for joy right now; you have shed your earthly body and your a shining beam of light, purity and love. Carolyn you will never be forgotten, my mother and I love you to the moon and back. This is not goodbye, but a until we meet again. You are still alive in our hearts. You were an amazing person, with a heart of gold. What I am going to miss most of all is the conversations, your voice on the phone and the joy and laughter. I will cherish that until I see you again maybe even longer, like I said Infinity and beyond. We're missing you already, tell your parents I said hello. I'm not saying goodbye, I am saying until we meet again.

I love you my sweet angel. I miss you so much. You are one of God's most special people. With a heart of gold and compassion beyond measure God holds a special place for you in heaven. You will be in my heart always. Your love will be the light to get me through my darkest hour. I cherish every memory of you. I know I will see you again one day and give you the hug I long to do now. You can finally get to know your mom and your mom can finally get to enjoy your company since you two never got to know one another. Now she can have the family she always wanted. God Bless you my angel. You were truly an angel on earth. It is rare to find someone with a pure heart of gold like yours. You were here for a while to bless this earth with your love and I am so grateful for having you in my life. Love forever, Nanny
