In the few short years that I have known Lil Mama, I felt that she was the best, and one of a kind. I so enjoyed the visits I had with her at Heathers. While I don't know the rest of the family, I can say Michele was a devoted daughter and I could see how much she loved her mom. My heart goes out to all the family, along with my prayers. I shall always remember the visit to her home in Bogalusa to dig up blueberry trees. Thanks to her, they are thriving and doing well in my backyard. There is never a time when we pick them that I don't think fondly of her. May God Bless all of you until you meet again.

Doc and family, I only met your mom on two occasions and wish I could have known her more. I know she was special and a wonderful cook. Her jams and jellies were out of this world (PS Doc, you were way too stingy passing out the jars). Red man, hogman and I still talk about her jam. And we all send our heartfelt thoughts and prayers to you and family. Always, Mr Curry
