Although Penney and I never had the chance to meet in person I feel that I knew her quite well. It all began about 5 years ago on Facebook playing Farmville. We chatted back and forth and soon found that we shared some things in common. First, we both loved our crazy FV game. But we also learned, as our relationship grew, that we were both born-again Christians and strongly believed in the power of prayer. I have a group of 10 special ladies, to include dear Penney, that join together on Facebook and pray for one another. Many, many days Penney prayed for all of us there as we prayed for her. It is because of her devout faith in God that I know I will finally get to meet my dear "virtual" friend in Heaven! God bless all of you who grieve, both friends and family.
