To my life long, very good friend, Kevin, and the entire Killens family, words are difficult to come by for expressing appropriate condolences at this time. I looked back today at my Little League, Post Oak Tigers pictures. Mr. Killens, my first baseball coach--two years. Me, a mere 7 and 8 year old. He, an imposing, yet gentle person with us. It was those years from which sprang many more indelible memories I have of Mr. Killens being at Kevin and my games, perhaps hundreds, first as coach, then as avid spectator, and the many times I spent with him and Kevin just doing things around H-town, and hearing his many unique sayings I'll never forget. Valerie and my thoughts are with your family, and we'll cherish memories of Mr. Killens always. Scott Locher
