I have many childhood memories of Aunt Renee and Uncle Marty; making us take our baths, making coke floats, playing in the 'tree' house, crabbing with drumsticks, Mark dumping the ice chest over and all the crabs on the floor, hiding in the carpet shop. I loved them both.

I remember Mrs Acuna in her bookstore on Avenue F. She would allow me to stand and read many of the books there and sometime I would purchase one. I did not have much money but she was very gracious. She is a positive figure in my memories forever. Grace and Peace to you Mrs. Audrey
