Randal was such a beautiful soul with such a kind heart. I can remember having conversations with him during my divorce and I always felt like I was with my dad. My son worshiped you as did most of us who loved you. The sun shines a little dimmer without you here.

I just learned of Randals passing today with a sad--sad heart. He was a dear friend of mine from years ago. We grew up together in high school and beyond and I have wonderful memories of our times together.. I tried to stay in touch with him over the years when I was in town.I am deeply saddened that I missed his service. My deepest condolences to his family.--Ken Wilson
