My grandmother was a blessing for me my entire life. She was always there for me. I know she is in heaven now watching over all of us. I love her and look forward to the day I will see her again.

Hello, I've been doing some family research and I think we are possibly related. My dad's mom, who passed away at the age of 19, Judith Evans, I believe might be Nancy Evans granddaughter.

Long before Taco Bell was Aunt Nancy's tacos, thank goodness she taught my mom to make them and it was a favorite meal for family. Nancy was the grandmom I wished for, always funny and upbeat and not a complaint. I will miss our talks, see you in Heaven dear lady...
