Ms. Margaret was one of the sweetest dearest women I have been priviledged enough to know. She was a dear friend to my grandmother, and a dear friend to our family. I have picked her up many times walking from the store in Bogalusa, as walking was almost usually her usual source of getting there. Never heard her grumble one ounce. She kept pictures of me & my brother Adam in a photo album, and everytime I visited she would pull them out. When I found out last week about her passing, I smiled :) because I know how much my grandmother Maude Adam Jordan loved her, and I know they must finally be getting to catch up. Glad I knew you Ms. Margaret. The Jordan Family
