To all the family of KC Our memories were many, but they were cut short,even though I know he is in a better place. He was a great friend and a good provider to his family. We went though thick and thin together and survived everything. We laughed at our mistakes,and never forgot them. He was a good teacher to me with his knowledge and his witt and I will never forget him. I do know that Kenneth Cooper knew the great admiration and love that I had for him. He would expect me to be here for all those he loved as I knew he showed he was there for mine when I deployed to Aghanistan. So if you need anything even to share a memory, please don't forget the best friend a man could ever have and call me. we'll talk about HIM... I'm going to miss my FRIEND AND BROTHER
