I am so very sorry to hear the sad news about Mr. Smith. He was my principal, and, I must say, the best. We retired the same year. It was so evident that he loved his family and God. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

It would be impossible to count the lives touched by Terry's wisdom, sense of humor, and leadership. He is the type of man that does not come along very often, and when he does, you grasp every piece of advise, every word he has to say, and every laugh he has to give. He was missed terribly before when he left us in Cullman...he will be missed even more now that he is no longer with us. May God comfort his family as only He can do. You are loved.
