I've been blessed to have been able to work with Jerry and know him for several years. He was an amazing nurse and an inspiration to others around him. He was always able to find the silver lining in a difficult situation and had a way with making others smile. He touched many lives in his time and will be missed so much.

Jerry was a loving, kind, intelligent Christian. Jerry not only devoted his life to his family but spent 26 years taking care of others as a loving, caring nurse. Jerry was a wonderful brother-in-law, father, husband, friend and Sunday school teacher and loved his church. Jerry went out of his way to give to others. The family will surely miss him.
