Randy Miller lit a candle in honor of Tanda.

Just read about the passing of Tanda and so sorry. My sympathy goes out to her family, especially my childhood friend, Keath. I remember Tanda as a beautiful soul who never had anything bad to say about anyone. She really was a good person and I know the Lord has reserved a place for her in His Heavenly Kingdom. God bless you, Tanda, and may you rest in peace with your mom, Terri, and grandma. Randy Miller

Keath Graham posted:

My sister, Tanda, and I shared a quirky sense of humor. The more somber the occasion the more we were likely to stifle a smile, a grin or a guffaw...if we made eye contact! No offense was ever intended. There was just something between us that made that connection. When I acted in community theater, mostly comedies, she was there every opening night. I could recognize the sound of her laughter above everyone else's. I considered her my good luck charm. She was a great sister, a wonderful mother to her son, a lover of animals and a friend to everyone. Many people don't know it but she also had a college degree in psychology. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her. Rest in peace, sister. I love you and will never forget you. Make God laugh.
