I was truly sorry to hear about this, Anthony and I were good friends all of our lives, as Brian said we went to school together all our lives, at least until he kept going and I did not, this is something that's been scary for quite some time the way people our age are being taken more and more every day, it's just sad, I've never ran across anyone that ever had anything negative to say about this friend of mine, always in good spirits and just as polite as can be, but I'm sure this is not something you didn't already know especially if you knew him, my prayers go out to you and your loved ones my friend and may you rest in peace.
