I was so sorry to hear of her passing.I remember Auntie Joyce as a gentle person. We didn't get to see other much as distance can be a barrier.I do have a wonderful memory from a visit when I was very young. She was getting her hair done. It was so long and beautiful. Silver. I have trouble cutting my own hair since that visit. She was that beautiful.I so sorry for my cousins losing her especially during these harsh times. You shared her with so many people, Thank you

I Had the honor of learning about teaching Sunday school from this precious lady. She worked tirelessly with Sis Culpepper making the classroom unique and a place of love and safety for all our kiddos. She stood beside mom and dad all the years they pastored her. She was one of the greatest saints in our church. Quiet but steadfast, She made her mark and she now has reaped her reward. Rest now in His arms. Love you, Sister Joyce.
