"Nanny" you was the Best "Nanny" in the world. I Miss you so so much and not a day goes by I don't think about you !The Memories we shared are always in my heart and the Memories of all the trips you always went on with my family will never be forgotten I just wish I could pick up the phone and hear your voice one last time and we could discuss the weather or all your pretty flowers and also get help with something I was trying to figure out how to cook. Mother cooked your famous chocolate pie and egg custard for Thanksgiving but it was not the same with you gone. I know your in a better pace I was blessed to have had over 53 years..as you had 97 long good years ,some question our closeness but thats ok they just never had the bond we shared through out our entire life...you helped my Mother take care for us as me and Brad was twins thats a bond me and you had that was never broken ... we lived with Paw Paw Munizza and you for atleast the first 6 months maybe longer of our lives. And it made us who we are...so the jealous ones still remain jealous but it never broke the bond with had if anything it made us stronger...Nanny I Love and Miss you and I always will Love you Brian

I remember when I was growing up as a kid 15 miles out in the country that Ella and her friends would get together at her house or one of her girls friends house and fix their nails and their hair. You see there wasn't any of those fancy salons and they had only read about pedicure and massages so on Saturdays they did each other's hair and nails. To name a few who gathered with Ella Bethel, Ida Mae Olivia, Sylvia, and I believe I'll Lee and maybe some of the Adams girls. They were all within walking distance. That was in a much quieter time actually just before world war two I was still just a kid, but I have memories of Ella as a bonified Christain woman whose faith could not be shaken and I would say a life well lived RIP.
