Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal.

He mattered, he was loved and he was my brother! I ask when you remember him, remember who he once was long ago, not what took control over him. Let his memory be a reminder that behind every struggle is a story, behind every addiction is a person and behind every loss is a love that never dies. I'm so heartbroken but the only thing that gives me comfort is knowing you are finally free from the pain and suffering that your body had to endure for so many years. I loved you Skip and one day, somewhere over the rainbow, we will see each other again. I'll love you forever and a day! Your sister, Dee!
