Ms. Christine "Chris" McNeese

OCT 30, 1956 - DEC 20, 2025

Christine "Chris" McNeese, age 69, passed away December 20, 2025, at Slidell Memorial Hospital in Slidell, Louisiana.

She was a life-long resident of Washington Parish until late 2005, after Hurricane Katrina. While a resident of Washington Parish, she devoted her life to service, including being a server at Pizza Hut, Western Sizzlin, and managing the Lariat. Chris also enjoyed her gardening and tending to her flowerbeds, particularly her roses.

Left to cherish her memories are two sons: Brian McNeese and Jacob McNeese; one daughter: Jennifer McNeese Bibeau; nine grandchildren: Morgan Daigle (Kasey), Cody Hunt, Callie McNeese, Tristan Bibeau (Alyssa), Little Jake McNeil, Caleb McNeese, Gabrielle McNeese, Cameron McNeese, and Claire McNeese; eleven great-grandbabies, a daughter-in-law: Amanda McNeese; one brother: John Mayfield; three sisters: Kitty Anderson, Jessica "Dago" McNeese, and Beatrice Thames; and a host of nieces, nephews, and beloved customers throughout the year.

She was preceded in death by her mother and bonus dad: Jessie and Maggie Mayfield; three brothers: Charlie Mayfield, Eli "PeeWee" Mayfield, and Bill Magee; two sisters: Judy Magee and Little Rosemary; her grandparents: Charlie and Margaine Adams; one uncle: Pete Adams; and an aunt: Francis Adams.

Brown-McGehee was entrusted with final arrangements.

Jessica Mcneese lit a candle in honor of Christine.

I will always remember Christine. She took me when I was 14 and no place to live and help teach me to learn how to cook. She will always be in my heart 🍷🍷🍷
