“ I went to school with Gloria and she is a lifelong friend. Coming from a very small family, I always loved spending time with the Verdin family. Jerry was a lovely man and I always enjoyed talking to him at the Verdin Family Crawfish Boil. You have my deepest sympathies. Irene Savoie Durio

“ I met Jerry six or seven years ago. From the beginning I like this kind man. As time went by I learned to love this pleasant man. I saw nothing that told me that this man wasn't genuine. He became an intricate part of our family. If we got together for some family and Jerry wasn't there with my Sister, Linda Lombas, Jerry's partner for the better part of seven years, we were all disappointed in his not being with us. I know I speak for our family when I say, we will all miss him dearly. He was gentle, loving, kind, thoughtful, honest and best of all he was not phony. I repeat myself, he was the real deal. God bless our wonderful friend Jerry, may he rest in peace and may we all be with him again.
